MASTER CLASS

Step into the minds of hair industry masters—renowned artists who are at the top of their game both on set and behind the chair.

In the Master Class series, R+Co brings you acclaimed editorial experts from around the world ready to share their time-tested techniques and best practices. Join them as they walk you through the groundwork needed to help you step up your skills and recreate the iconic styles that propelled their careers—and could propel yours.

THE MASTER SYLVESTRE FINOLD

@sylvestre_finold

London-based artist Sylvestre Finold works both behind the chair and on set, creating detailed, playful, experimental styles that often include an editorial edge. A strong advocate of continuing education, Finold believes that if you stop learning, you stop growing; you need to be curious and keep pushing yourself to garner success.

Finold has gained notoriety through not only his editorial work, but also through such accolades as winning British Avant-garde Hairdresser of the Year (2018 and 2020), AIPP (2018 and 2019) and International Hairdresser Winner for (2018 and 2019).

Join Finold as he guides you through four R+Co Master Classes that explore techniques that can be applied both in the salon and to editorial work. The final class will be a culmination of all skills learned to help you create your own editorial look.

MASTER CLASS 1	The Fundamentals of Braiding	April 19
MASTER CLASS 2	Creating Different Textures	June 28
MASTER CLASS 3	Perfecting Rolls + Ponytails	TBD
MASTER CLASS 4	Creative Editorial	TBD

Sylvestre Finold's Master Classes are meant to be taken in succession.

Each master class will cost $50 or 250 points.

Attendees within the continental US will receive a giftbag after attending and completing each class.
